Lucca

This quaint and evocative city retains the charm of a small and ancient Italian City State. Over the centuries it has managed to hold on to its independence and freedom by adopting a cautious policy. Having miraculously escaped the devastation of war, today it boasts one of the most extraordinary Tuscan art heritage.

Meeting with the guide and visit to:

Piazza S. Michele in Foro

Piazza Napoleone

Basilica di San Frediano

Cathedral San Martino

Guinigi Tower

Piazza Anfiteatro

Florence

The timeless quality of Florence make it one of the most important cities of artistic interest in the world. Between the 14th and 16th centuries it surprised the world by becoming, after Ancient Greece, the most incredible breeding ground of intelligence which gave birth to a new culture. Dante, Giotto, Botticelli, Leonardo, Brunelleschi, Donatello and the "divine" Michelangelo have left us a legacy which still permeates the roads, marbles, the extraordinary palaces and museums of this city , heritage of mankind. The cult of beauty is everywhere blending harmoniously with the Tuscan tradition. Elegant boutiques rub shoulders with open air markets painting an unforgettable picture worthy of "Room with a View."
